Warnings and Notices to the Respondent

To the restrained person: This Order is valid until the expiration date and time noted on page 1. You are required to surrender all firearms, ammunition, and magazines that you own or possess in accordance with section 18120 of the Penal Code and you may not have in your custody or control, own, purchase, possess, or receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, any firearm, ammunition, or magazines while this order is in effect. A hearing will be held on the date and at the time noted on Page 1 to determine if a more permanent gun violence restraining order should be issued. Failure to appear at the hearing may result in a court making an order against you that is valid for a period between one and five years. You may seek the advice of an attorney as to any matter connected with the order. The attorney should be consulted promptly so that the attorney may assist you in any matter connected with the order.

Violation of this Order is a misdemeanor. If you violate this Order, you will be prohibited from having in your custody or control, owning, purchasing, possessing, or receiving, or attempting to purchase or receive, a firearm, ammunition, or magazine for a period of five years. This Order must be enforced by any law enforcement officer in the State of California who is aware of or shown a copy of this Order. The Order remains enforceable regardless of the acts of the parties; it may be changed only by an order of the court.

This is a Court Order.

After You Have Been Served With a Temporary Order

- Obey the order by turning in all firearms, ammunition, and magazines to a law enforcement agency or selling them to or storing them with a licensed gun dealer.
- Read How Can I Respond to a Petition for Gun Violence Restraining Order? (form GV-120-INFO) to learn how to respond to this Order.
- If you do not oppose the petition, fill out Consent to Gun Violence Restraining Order and Surrender of Firearms (form GV-125) and file it with the court clerk.
- If you disagree with the petition, fill out Response to Petition for Gun Violence Restraining Order (form GV-120) and file it with the court clerk.
- You must have form GV-120 served by mail on the Petitioner or the Petitioner's attorney. You cannot do this yourself. The person who does the mailing should complete and sign Proof of Service of Response by Mail (form GV-250). File the completed proof of service with the court clerk before the hearing date or bring it with you to the hearing.
- In addition to the response, you may file and have declarations served, signed by you and other persons who have personal knowledge of the facts. You may use Declaration (form MC-030) for this purpose. It is available from the clerk's office at the court shown on page 1 of this form or at www.courts.ca.gov/forms. If you do not know how to prepare a declaration, you should see a lawyer.
- Whether or not you file a response, you should attend the hearing. If you have any witnesses, they must also go to the hearing.
- At the hearing, the judge can make a gun violence restraining order against you that lasts between one to five years. Tell the judge why you disagree with the order requested.

Instructions for Law Enforcement

Duties of Officer Serving This Order

The officer who serves this order on the Restrained Person must do the following:

- Ask if the Restrained Person is in possession of any firearms, ammunition, or magazines or has custody or control of any that they have not already turned in.
- Order the Restrained Person to immediately surrender to you all firearms, ammunition, and magazines.
- Issue a receipt to the Restrained Person for all firearms, ammunition, and magazines that have been surrendered.
- Complete a proof of personal service and file it with the court. You may use form GV-200 for this purpose.
- Within one business day of service, submit the proof of service directly into the California Restraining and Protective Order System (CARPOS), including the serving officer's name and law enforcement agency.

Duties of Agency on Surrender of Firearms, Ammunition, or Magazines

The law enforcement agency that has received surrendered firearms, ammunition, or magazines must do the following:

- Retain the firearms, ammunition, or magazines until the termination or expiration of this Order or of any other gun violence restraining order issued by the court.
- On the expiration of this Order or of any later gun violence restraining order issued by the court, return the firearms, ammunition, or magazines to the respondent as provided by chapter 2 of division 11 of title 4 of the Penal Code (commencing with section 33850). Firearms, ammunition, or magazines that are not claimed are subject to the requirements of section 34000.

This is a Court Order.

- If someone other than the Respondent claims title to any of the firearms, ammunition, or magazines surrendered, determine whether that person is the lawful owner. If so, return the firearms, ammunition, or magazines to that person as provided by chapter 2 of division 11 of title 4 of the Penal Code (commencing with section 33850).

Enforcing This Order

The law enforcement officer should determine if the Respondent had notice of the order. Consider the Respondent "served" (given notice) if:

- The officer sees a copy of the proof of service or confirms that the proof of service is on file; or
- The Respondent was informed of the order by an officer; or
- The officer sees a filed copy of form GV-125.

An officer can obtain information about the contents of the order and proof of service in CARPOS. If proof of service on the Respondent cannot be verified, the agency must advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then enforce it (see above: Duties of Officer Serving This Order).

The provisions in this Temporary Gun Violence Restraining Order do not affect those of any other protective or restraining order in effect, including a criminal protective order. The provisions in any other another existing protective order remain in effect.

PURSUANT TO CALIFORNIA PENAL

To the Honorable Judge Campagna, Superior Court Judge, L.M., Respondent, and their attorney of record.

Petitioner, San Diego Police Department, submits the following Memorandum of Points and Authorities in support of its request to continue the court hearing for Gun Violence Restraining Order pursuant to California Penal Code §18195. This motion will be based on the following memorandum of points and authorities and on such oral and documentary evidence as may be presented at the hearing.

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I

3 STATEMENT OF CASE

4 On May 5, 2021, Petitioner filed a petition for a Gun Violence Restraining Order (GVRO)
5 against Respondent. The Honorable Katherine A. Bacal granted Petitioner's request for a GVRO
6 with a hearing set for June 22, 2021, at 9 a.m., in Department 61. On May 7, 2021, Respondent
7 was served with the GVRO and the proof of service was filed by Petitioner on June 16, 2021.

8 On June 11, 2021, Bonita P Martinez, counsel for Respondent, served Jeffrey A. Brooker,
9 counsel for Petitioner with a ten-page Response to the Petition for GVRO and five separate
10 declarations for a total of 11 pages. On June 15, 2021, counsel for Respondent served counsel for 11 Petitioner with Respondent's response comprised of 80 pages. On June 16, 2021, counsel for 12 Respondent served counsel for Petitioner with an additional declaration totaling three pages.

13 II

14 STATEMENT OF FACTS

15 On April 21, 2021, San Diego Police Department Detective Garlow received information
16 from a California Department of Justice (CADOJ) investigative report which indicated that three 17 unregistered assault weapons were seized by the Chula Vista Police Department (CVPD). One
18 firearm was seized from Respondent's residence while the other two were seized from the 19 residence of Respondent's uncle. These firearms were inspected and confirmed by a CADOJ
20 Special Agent to be assault weapons pursuant to Penal Code section 30515(a).¹

21 Based on the information provided in the CADOJ investigative report, Detective Garlow
22 believed that Respondent was in violation of Penal Code section 30605(a).² Detective Garlow
23 conducted an additional search on the California database Automated Firearm System (AFS) to 24 identify all firearms that are registered to Respondent. The records check revealed a total of eight
25 registered firearms. Two of the eight registered firearms had been seized by CVPD pursuant to a
26

27 ¹ Penal Code § 30515(a) defines the parameters of an "assault weapon."

28 ² Penal Code §30605 (a) prohibits the possession of an assault weapon.

1 previous search warrant execution. The remaining six firearms are still outstanding and
2 unaccounted for. Additionally, two of the eight registered firearms were purchased in the two
3 consecutive months following the seizure of two firearms pursuant to the January search.

4 On April 26, 2021, Detective Garlow spoke telephonically with a Naval Criminal
5 Investigative Service Special Agent who indicated that Respondent had ties to the City of 6 San Diego by the nature of his employment. Respondent is employed as a civilian contractor at 7 the Balboa Naval Hospital located in the City of San Diego.

8 On April 28, 2021, Detective Garlow requested photographs from CVPD of any firearms
9 possessed by Respondent, and subsequently received two photographs. Per CVPD, the 10 photographs were downloaded from Respondent's cell phone on January 23, 2021, with a
11 timestamp date of January 9, 2020. One photograph depicts a kitchen table with a cache of 16
12 firearms, four United States Passports, a government identification card, several high capacity
13 magazines and hundreds of rounds of ammunition. The cache of firearms included two short-
14 barreled AR-15 illegal assault weapon platforms, five AR-15 platform rifles with undetermined
15 legality, three pump shotguns, one bolt-action rifle with a scope, and five semi-automatic
16 handguns. In the other photograph, Respondent's minor child is seen standing on the table
17 surrounded by the same cache of legal and illegal firearms and ammunition. The child had 18 immediate access to the illegal assault weapons, the 14 other firearms and ammunition, creating a
19 potential extreme danger to the child and those physically present at the home.

20 Detective Garlow was able to ascertain that only two of the firearms depicted in the 21 photographs were listed on Respondent's AFS report as legally registered firearms. The 14 other
22 firearms in Respondent's possession were not registered.

23 As of May 4, 2021, only two of the possibly 20 firearms have been accounted for by law
24 enforcement, leaving roughly 18 firearms still outstanding. The additional AR-15 illegal assault
25 weapon seized by law enforcement prior to April 21 may account for one of the weapons imaged
26 on the table, or it may be outstanding. A positive match analysis has not yet been completed.

27 After a search warrant was executed at Respondent's residence in January, Respondent
28 told officers that he knew they were coming for his firearms and he gave multiple firearms to his

1 friends. Respondent refused to disclose the names of the people possessing Respondent's
2 firearms. Respondent then purchased two additional firearms shortly after the two handguns were
3 seized by CVPD.

4 This was the sum of the information possessed at the time of filing. Since that time, a
5 subsequent search warrant was executed in May and multiple other firearms were seized,
6 including another potentially illegal assault weapon.

7 III

8 ARGUMENT

9 A. GOOD CAUSE EXISTS TO CONTINUE THE COURT HEARING FOR THE GUN 10 VIOLENCE RESTRAINING ORDER

11 Pursuant to California Penal Code section 18195, any hearing may be continued upon a 12 showing of good cause.

13 Here, Respondent's counsel served Petitioner's counsel with numerous documents on 14 June 11, 2021. This service included Respondent's detailed response and letters from character
15 witnesses. On June 14, 2021, Respondent's counsel served Petitioner's counsel with an eighty-
16 page document that added 19 exhibits to the response previously filed. On June 15, 2021,
17 Respondent's counsel served Petitioner's counsel with an additional declaration from 18 respondent's uncle detailing specific information on the status of two of the firearms in question.

19 Respondent's response consists of dozens of claims regarding the legality, storage,
20 acquisition, and location of his firearms. These claims directly rebut Petitioner's claims outlined
21 in the original declaration and bear on both the credibility of the Respondent but also the ultimate
22 issue of Respondent posing a danger to self or others. After receiving this information, SDPD
23 immediately scheduled a physical examination of each of the assault weapons in order to verify or 24 rebut Respondent's claims. The first assault weapon was examined on June 15 and the second
25 assault weapon was examined on June 16. The information gathered is in the process of being 26 compared to the Respondent's claims and declarations will be generated once that process is 27 completed. Additionally, SDPD has reached out to the ATF in order to obtain other necessary
28 documentation to verify or rebut Respondent's claims. Respondent made numerous claims about

1 the origin and status of his firearms but did not provide any documentation regarding the purchase
2 dates, locations, receipts, etc. Verification of these claims will also bear on the credibility of the 3 Respondent and Petitioner is entitled the reasonable opportunity to test these claims with our own
4 attempts to gather the relevant documentation. To date, we have received some of the information
5 requested and still await more. Once this process is completed, said documentation will be 6 incorporated into declarations and possibly attached as exhibits.

7 Respondent also made claims and attached exhibits pertaining to a CWS investigation,
8 Character references on seven different potential witnesses, and made claims about facts and
9 circumstances involving facts and issues with the CVPD. In response, Petitioner has reached out
10 to CVPD and other entities to obtain declarations to either confirm or rebut the issues raised by 11 the Respondent, which will also be relevant to the credibility of the Respondent and the ultimate 12 issue in the case.

13 Petitioner needs and should be entitled the opportunity to adequately investigate
14 Respondent's claims, obtain documentation, interview witnesses, formulate defenses if necessary,
15 and generate declarations before Petitioner proceeds to hearing. Less than one week is an
16 insufficient timeframe to complete these necessary next steps. Additionally, Respondent's
17 counsel provided Petitioner with black and white photos in the eighty-page document that make it
18 difficult to see what has been depicted in some of the photographs. Therefore, Petitioner is also 19 requesting color photographs from Respondent. Lastly, in Respondent's response, Respondent
20 asked to be given more time to respond and has not filed a motion to unredact the petition and 21 supporting declarations filed by Petitioner in this case.

22
