All law enforcement calls for service to any unit number in the Roadrunner Mobile Home Park, 51063 29 Palms Hwy from June 1, 2023 to 10/19/2023. Please include...

"...the time, substance, and location of all complaints or requests for assistance received by the agency and the time and nature of the response thereto, including, to the extent the information regarding crimes alleged or committed or any other incident investigated is recorded, the time, date, and location of occurrence, the time and date of the report, the name and age of the victim, the factual circumstances surrounding the crime or incident, and a general description of any injuries, property, or weapons involved."

Please include complete CAD records related to the above calls for service. Please include records indicating the final disposition of the calls. Please provide the records via email in digital format, if possible. I look forward to your response as required by law.

The type of records you have requested constitute confidential investigative records. Government Code section 7923.600, subdivision (a) exempts from California Public Records Act disclosure "any investigatory or security files compiled by any other state or local police agency, or any investigatory or security files compiled by any other state or local agency for correctional, law enforcement, or licensing purposes." These records are exempt from disclosure, even if the prospect of enforcement proceedings is not concrete and definite. (Haynie v. Superior Court (2001) 26 Cal.4th 1061,1069; Black Panther Party v. Kehoe (1974) 42 Cal.App.3d 645, 654; Younger v. Berkeley City Council (1st Dist. 1975) 45 Cal.App.3d 825, 833; American Civil Liberties Union Foundation v. Deukmejian (1982) 32 Cal.3d 440.) The records remain protected from disclosure even after an investigation has concluded. (Williams v. Superior Court (1993) 5 Cal.4th 337, 355–362.) Further, the release of such records could violate the privacy rights of involved parties and others named and/or depicted therein. The California Public Records Act recognizes that the right to privacy is a fundamental interest that the California Constitution protects. (Cal. Const., art. I, § 1; Gov. Code, §§ 7927.700 and 7927.705.)
